A few comments

I think Dan's comments are on the right track.

(b)(5) - Deliberative Process Privilege

I also agree with rounding off numbers; the degree of rounding depends on the number, e.g., cost of water is about $1,000 to about $10,000. Use lots of sense, but few cents. (har, har, har...ba da bing ba da boom...) An exception is when its $ 0.03 per pound or the like.

I've made some edits to the parts highlighted (although the page numbers didn't match up exactly). Only my edits are shown, but earlier comments remain. (b)(5) - Deliberative Process Privilege

There are also some comments. One recurring comment is about (b)(5) - Deliberative Process Privilege

See what you think. (b)(5) - Deliberative Process Privilege

All,

Attached is the most recent version of the draft preamble and rule. In order to focus your review, the edits and corrections are found on the following pages:

56-57
66-68
71-74
82-87

I left place holders for the actual cost information required by the ICR. I also added new language in the PRA section on page 89.
